

PARISH OF SAINT VINCENT IN SARRIÀ

You are entering a church, a place of prayer and celebration.

The Parish of Saint Vincent in Sarrià is a neoclassical temple built by the end of the 18th century and dedicated to Saint Vincent, martyred in the 4th century in Saragossa. As early as 987, there was in this very same place, another temple consecrated to Saint Vincent, as the commemorative plaque on the façade reminds.

1. Façade

Plaque commemorating the Parish's millennium
Rose window with St Vincent and St Eulàlia

2. Baptistry

The Baptism of Jesus. Mural by Fornells-Pla (1945)

3. Chapel of St Eulàlia

Image of St Eulàlia, by J. Camps i Arnau
Paintings by J. Torras Viver (2001)

4. Altarpiece of Our Lady of Rosary

Work by Agustí Pujol (1619) and Joan Basí (1621)

5. Chapel of the Immaculate Conception

Image of the Virgin, by J. Camps i Arnau
Paintings by Fornells-Pla (1954)

6. Presbytery of St Vincent

Image of St Vincent, by A. Pérez Fàbregues (1939)
Relief of Emmaus, by Rafel Solanic Ballús (1954)
Murals by Josep Obiols (1954)
Glorious Christ on the Cross, by J. M. Nuet Martí (1983)

Sentence in the frieze:

"TO THE VICTOR I SHALL GIVE THE HIDDEN MANNA ✠
I SHALL GIVE A NEW NAME ✠ WHICH NO ONE KNOWS EXCEPT THE ONE WHO RECEIVES IT" (Rev 2,17)

7. Altarpiece of St Clair

Altarpiece from the ancient Convent of St Clair. Work by Andreu Sala (1686)

8. Chapel of Our Lady of Montserrat, Patron of Catalonia

Paintings by Adrià Gual (1943)
Allegories of Montserrat and Catalonia, by Lluís Pallarès (1945)

9. Chapel of Blessed Pere Tarrés

Paintings by J. Torras Viver
Relief of Blessed Pere Tarrés, by Montserrat Garcia
Grave of Pere Tarrés i Claret, doctor and priest born in Manresa (1905) and deceased in Barcelona (1950). His remains were moved to St Vincent on the 6th November 1975. On the 5th September 2004, Pope John Paul II declared him Blessed, and his feast day is the 30th May.

10. Chapel of St Joseph

Baroque image of St Joseph, donated by a family of Sarrià.

